About Luang Say Lodge:

Luang Say Lodge is located and built in a very romantic setting. On the river bank, amidst the lush green hills the Lodge gives the feeling that you have discovered paradise. Constructed in traditional Lao architectural style with solid wooden logs, each room has a bathroom which has running water for hot and cold showers, electric fans and mosquito nets.

Attached balconies offer a beautiful view of the river and hills. A central riverbank restaurant is reached by wooden walkways from the pavilions. Mouth-watering local dishes are served in the dining rooms in the center overlooking the river. A small bar offers drinks of choice at reasonable rates. On days when house guests exceed over 20 persons and during high season, the management provides hill tribe folk dances performed by the villagers.

- 16 pavilions with a total of 19 rooms and 38 beds
- Private bathrooms with toilets and hot shower
- Ceiling fan in the rooms
- Bar and restaurant

Some guest who spent the night here wrote about their experience:

- ✚ “Would love to stay longer in this enchanting place Will certainly recommend it”.
- ✚ “Peace and tranquility –it does exist in Laos”
- ✚ “A magical time out”
- ✚ “Beautiful, idyllic setting-a- dream come true”

About Luang Say Lodge:

Only 3 hours from Luang Prabang and overlooking the mighty Mekong, a unique lodge is about to open on a wonderful site. The Kamu Lodge features 20 canvas tents covered by a thatched roof in harmony with the surrounding nature and adapted to the local style. Each tent is decorated with bamboo and wooden furniture items and has an attached private bathroom with shower and toilet and solar-powered warm water and electricity. With only wilderness surrounding the lodge except for a neighboring village, this exclusive and ecological experience in a traditional and simple setting is what we invite you to discover. Travel back to the beginnings of the 20th century when people came to Indochina to explore and discover!

TRANSFERS BETWEEN THAILAND AND LUANG SAY PIER IN HOUAISAY / LAOS

Luang Say cruises start or end at the pier next to the Immigration checkpoint at Houeisay, the Lao border town on the north bank of Mekong River. On the opposite bank to Houeisay on the south bank of Mekong River, is Chiang Khong (Chiang Rai province) the Thai border town.
